2. Layout: Columns, Lists, Hyphenation

This page tests reading-order reconstruction. The body is set in two columns; a correct ingestion pipeline should read all of column one before column two. Note the hyphenated words broken across line endings: they should ideally be rejoined into single tokens (reconstruction, column, broken).

COLUMN ONE ENDS HERE.

COLUMN TWO STARTS HERE.

If this sentence appears before the end of column one in your extracted output, the extractor is reading in raster order rather than column order.

A quotation block follows, indented and italic:

“The block quotation is indented from both margins and italicized.”

Bulleted list:

- First bullet item
- Second bullet item with wrap-around text continuing on
- Third bullet item

Numbered list with nesting:

1. Top-level item one
2. Top-level item two
 - a. Nested item alpha
 - b. Nested item beta
3. Top-level item three

Checkbox-style list (glyphs):

- ☐ Incomplete task

5. Landscape A4 Page (mixed page sizes/orientations)

This page is A4 landscape while the rest of the document is US Letter portrait.
Ingestion systems should handle per-page MediaBox differences. A wide table follows:

Month	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	Jun	Jul	Aug	Sep	Oct	Nov	Dec
Sales	1,463	1,108	1,608	898	948	1,897	992	1,548	1,993	918	1,839	1,239
Returns	14	21	65	63	18	40	21	80	64	17	82	25

6. Page with /Rotate 90 in page dictionary

The page object carries /Rotate 90. Viewers display this page upright, but the underlying text matrix is rotated. Extractors that ignore /Rotate will produce rotated coordinates or garbled ordering for this page.

A sticky-note (Text) annotation is anchored to the right of this line. →

This sentence is covered by a yellow HIGHLIGHT annotation.

Annotation text lives OUTSIDE the content stream — extractors must read /Annots.

Scanned Page - No OCR Layer

This simulated scan has NO text layer. Text extraction must return nothing for this page; content exists only as pixels. An ingestion pipeline should detect this and route the page to its own OCR engine.

Pangram: Pack my box with five dozen liquor jugs.

Scanned Page - With OCR Layer

This simulated scan was processed with the Tesseract OCR engine, which placed an invisible text layer over the image. Text on this page is searchable and extractable, though OCR confidence varies and minor errors are possible by design.

Pangram: The quick brown fox jumps over the lazy dog.
